B&E – a major sponsor of the Senior National Championships

B&E began as a publicly-funded Building Society in Launceston (Tas) in 1870. It amalgamated with the Bass Building Society in 1988, changing its name finally to B&E in 2001. It remains one of Tasmania's last locally-owned financial institutions and has broadened its operations to now include personal loans, overdrafts, commercial loans and regular banking transactions.
